

Eliminating the "Do Not Call" restrictions in the state of Wisconsin will result in nothing more than an on-going invasion of my privacy, which I thought was an inalienable right in this country. Reconsider and resist the pressure from the lobbyists, if you please.